A CLERK'S SUICIDE.

Financial Troubles Cause Him to Commit the Deed.

Robert A. Sedgwick, fifty years old, a clerk in the office of the auditor for the State Department, died yesterday about 6:30 o'clock from a dose of morphine, taken, it is believed, with suicidal intent. His death occurred in his apartment at the house of Mrs. Fannie Ten Eyck, 1006 I street northwest. Coroner Nevitt visited the house and gave a certificate of death from morphine, recording the case as one of suicide. Nervousness, brought on by financial trouble, it is said, caused the man to end his life. It is alleged that Mr. Sedgwick had patronized some of the money lenders who charge from 60 to 120 per cent interest, and when these payments were not made on time the money lenders complained to the department, and the man was threatened with dismissal. His landlady came to his rescue, and Sedgwick was very much worried over what he owed her, although she had never pressed him for the money. A daughter of Mr. Sedg-wick was at times alarmed over his condition and appealed to the police, fearing he was losing his mind.

The family physician was called to see him yesterday morning, and the lat-ter found symptoms of morphine pois-oning. A vial that had contained one-fourth grain morphine tablets was found in his room. The meeting was called to order by Attorney Frisbey, who announced that it had been called for the purpose of recommending to President Roosevelt the appointment of a colored man to the next vacancy on the Police Court bench, which will occur during January next, at the expiration

Attorneys W. Calvin Chase and John Moss suggested that it would be better to at first form a bar association for colored members of the bar, and to proceed in the direction of securing a colored man's appointment on the bench after an organization had been effected. The majority of the fifteen present agreed on that point, and Thomas L. Jones and Arthur W. Scott were chosen temporary president and secretary, respectively. It was suggested that a committee of five be appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws, and W. Calvin Chase was chosen chairman. It was announced that the purpose of the organization would be for the betterment of the social and business affairs of its members. The colored members of the bar have to

COLOGNE, June 11.+The Cologne Gazette prints a dispatch from Belgrade which says a story is current there that the late King Alexander was recently considering effecting a separation from Queen Draga, and that the latter, becoming aware of

The foreign office received early advices from the French minister at Belgrade confirming the Belgrade press dispatches, and adding that the city was comparatively quiet this morning, the people seeming to accept the proclamation of Prince Karageorgevitch as king. Foreign Minister Delcasse communicated his advices to President Loubet. Officials of the foreign office say it is too soon to indicate clearly the effect of the situation in Servia on the

Whether there will be similar action of the powers at this time-officials are unwilling to predict, saying the shock of the tragedies is chiefly occupying attention. In an interview today Prince Bodijar said he considered that popular hatred of Queen Draga was largely responsible for the events at Belgrade. He added that his cousin, the new king, had long aspired to the Servian throne, and declared that the family was colsely allied to Russia, thus assuring a pro-Russian policy in

Dr. Petrovitch of the Servian legation described the new king as a student of affairs of state, as being intensely animated by Servia's political destinies and as an admirer of Russia. The newly proclaimed king, Dr. Petrovitch added, is sending his son to St. Petersburg, where he will be educated at the expense of the imperial court of Russia.

Politicians had frequently sought to induce the new king to attempt to take the throne of Servia, but he always replied that he would not permit a dynastic contest to provoke a civil convulsion, and he preferred to await the result of the popular weariness resulting from the old
